

PCPI

Parent Cooperative Preschools International

We Play, We Learn, We Cooperate

When children engage in pretend play, they learn to effectively interact with their peers and to use increasingly complex language to share ideas and connect with others and the world around them.

Play in the House Corner.

